

Oregon Ocean Day

Join June 11th ~ Oregon Ocean Day Coastal Annual Celebration, with Ocean Blue Project.

Together with volunteers like you, our goal is collect as much Ridgid & micro-plastic as possible to be used for the creation of recycled shampoo bottles for P&G's Head & Shoulders.

Join our team in making the world we share a better place to live, and grow.

More Information:

All volunteers must complete sign up waiver form on Ocean Blue Project. All ages welcome, minors under the age of 18 must be accompanied by an adult. No drop-offs please. Community service hours can be awarded if requested, and groups welcome.

Items you will not want to forget: Refillable Drinking Container, Warm Clothing, and Rain Gear!

Ocean Blue will provide drinking water, gloves, reusable collection containers if possible because we do not use plastic bags at our clean ups.

This year, we will be mailing the beach plastic to be upcycled into other products like the shampoo bottle proctor and gamble already has on the market because "keeping the rubbish out of the landfill is priceless."

Sign up online to complete your waiver form for this is required and will save time prior to event (541) 286-7015 or online at www.OceanBlueProject.org.
